LOUISVILLE, KY.

M. M. Hounshell, of Elkatawa, was here on business Monday.

James Patton has been slated for appointment as postmaster at Lambrie.

Mrs. Dulcena Hurst, who has been very sick for some time, is much improved.

Mr. and Mrs. Samuel Patton, of Gange, were here Monday after a boat load of goods.

Grover Blanton has moved into the house on court street recently vacated by G. B. Smith.

Mr. and Mrs. J. J. C. Back went to Lexington last Friday on a shopping expedition.

Samuel E. Patton is preparing to build a cottage on the Heights. J. D. Moore has the contract for the stone foundation.

R. A. Hurst returned from Frankfort Friday where he had been looking after a case he had in the Court of Appeals.

D. B. Hurst, of Malaga, was here Monday visiting his mother, Mrs. Dulcena Hurst, who has been quite sick for some time.

The Jackson Bottling Works has begun operating again, making soda pop, ginger ale, etc., which will give employment to several hands.

E. I. Dawkins, who has been visiting home folks at Worthville for the past month, has returned and resumed his work as clerk in the bank.

James Lykina was cut and stabbed several times with a knife by Jesse Trent, on Frozen creek, near Thomas Strong's last Sunday evening.

Abner Bowman, of Athol, was here visiting friends and relatives from Saturday till Monday. He is unusually stout and active for a man of his age.

Jere Cardwell, who has been living in Wolfe county for the past ten years, has moved back and will soon enter into the mercantile business here.

J. A. Hadden, who has been living at Grapevine for the past five years, has moved his family to Lost Creek in order to be able to send his children to school at that place.

J. I. Hall has been appointed storekeeper and gauger for Obe Roberts' distillery and entered upon his duties April 1st. Mr. Witt, who has been holding that job, has been transferred to Estill county.

Sam Turner shot and wounded Nigger Richmond in the leg last Friday evening. The difficulty occurred near the residence of Alex Herald, near the mouth of Puncannon Camp. The parties were said to be drinking at the time.

In a difficulty near the home of Henry Gabbard, on Puncannon Camp, last Saturday evening, Isaac Gabbard got his arm broken and Mrs. Henry Gabbard was accidentally hit in the head with a rock and seriously hurt. We understand that Breck Little is accused of breaking Gabbard's arm. The beligerants were drinking at the time.

We take the following from the Clay City Times of March 26:

"The Jackson Democrat is for Judge J. Wise Hagens for Circuit Judge in the 23d judicial district.

The Democrat is for the right man. Judge Hagens has been a man who has always followed honest convictions of right as he saw.

He may have been in bad company, but not altogether, for where ever you have found the Judge in the past few years, you have also found about 1,000 other

Democrats of his county. Such men are not to be driven from the party if we expect to gain victories.

Judge Hagens is honest, capable and from principle every inch a Democrat. He can carry

1,000 more Democrats than any other man, which means his election. Then why not nominate him?

Judge T. B. Blakey, of Beattyville, has been appointed Assistant Attorney General under the act passed by the Legislature.

Commonwealth's Attorney.

Qualifications, fitness for the office to which one aspires should be and is the first consideration of the people. The selection of an able commonwealth's attorney is indeed important. In this hands the rights of the people are entrusted; to him society must look for redress and protection against crime and criminals. He is the people's, the law's, and law-abiding, the best citizens' representative. The criminal when caught employs the best legal ability to be had. Men who are specialists in criminal law, expert judges of men, skilful lawyers of great ability, throttle justice in open court unless the people's rights are protected by the commonwealth's attorney. If law and order can be maintained, the people's rights protected, the supremacy of the law upheld and our homes safeguarded, the people must have a fearless champion of undoubted integrity and equal in ability to the best lawyer in the district. The emoluments of the office justify the services of such a man; the people demand it; the preservation of their rights justify it.

Our fellow-townsman, A. H. Patton, has by his energy and ability built up a lucrative practice. He is recognized as one of the leading lawyers of Eastern Kentucky. By his unwavering devotion to the rights of the people, his courageous stand on all public questions, has found the way to the hearts of our people. They have seen him werry, of I'd know he will stand by Little; they appreciate his manners of this lawyer and public sit logging and gun-limited conf... Mrs. Rachel McIntosh, Mrs. Julia Ann, etc., carry the solid vote of his party and practically the full strength of the independent voters of this county.

Shake In A Bottle.

Now is the time when the doctor gets busy, and the patent medicine manufacturer reap the harvest, unless great care is taken to dress warmly and keep the feet dry. This is the advice of an old eminent authority, who says that Rheumatism and Kidney trouble weather is here, and also tells what to do in case of an attack.

Get from any good prescription pharmacy one-half ounce Fluid Extract Dandelion, one ounce Compound Kargan, three ounces Compound Syrup Sarsaparilla. Mix by shaking in a bottle and take a teaspoonful after meals and at bedtime.

Just try this simple home-made mixture at the first sign of Rheumatism, or if your back aches or you feel that the kidneys are not acting just right. This is said to be splendid kidney regulator and almost certain remedy for all forms of Rheumatism, which is caused by uric acid in the blood which the kidneys fail to filter out. Any one can easily prepare this at home and at small cost.

Druggists in this town and vicinity, when shown the prescription, stated that they could either supply these ingredients, or, if our readers prefer, they will compound the mixture for them.

SIMPSON.

Dr. Wise, of Lee City, was at this place Tuesday to see the sick. ... Harlan Wilson has moved from the head of Boone to Davis. ... Charles Sweeney moved from Stillwater to the farm he purchased of Harlan Wilson. ... Mrs. Hampton is having her farm sown in oats and grass. ... M. D. Malone cut his foot very bad the first of the week. ... Alvin Dickerson was on this side Tuesday. ... There will be a sacrament and foot washing at this place the first Sunday in April conducted by Rev. Madden and others.

Dr. Wise went to West Liberty on business Monday. ... A large crowd went to Cannel City Sunday and all report a nice time.

The Juniors from here were R. B. Rose, Dr. J. H. Dunn, Whitney Wise, Bruce Rose, George Taylor, Henry Clair, Harland Pratt, J. L. Duff, others who attended were Misses Ellie Bryant, Sebina Patrick, Ethel Wise, Nora Wise, Mrs. Carrie Duff, Mrs. George Taylor, Rose Rose, Merdie Stricklin, Alex Duff, Henry Chaney and a Mr. Hounshell. Elder J. D. Hunter and F. P. Wilson preached able sermons. ... Mrs. W. P. Wise has been on the sick list for several days. ... Dr. Wise was called to the bedside of his sister a few days ago, who is very low with consumption.

... Miss Nora Wise has returned from Elkatawa where she had been visiting relatives. ... Miss Trina Watters returned from Berea College Saturday. ...

At an early date, we shall give an analysis, somewhat in detail, of the provisions of the County Board Bill which becomes a law in ninety days from the date of its signature, which took place March 24th.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Mays captured John Noe and James Stampor, moonshiners, in Powell county last week and placed them in the Richmond jail. The posse destroyed 2,000 gallons of beer, 150 gallons of singlings and a still claimed to be worth $500.

School Legislation.

The last General Assembly of Kentucky will go down in history of Kentucky as the "Educational Legislature." It made a record for more school legislation than any General Assembly preceding it. Following are the most important acts passed by it, all of which have been signed by the Governor:

"The Half-Million Appropriation," made up of $200,000 for the State University and $150,000 for each of the State Normal schools for additional buildings and repairs. The same measure carried increased annual appropriations to these three institutions.

The bill changing the name of Kentucky State College to Kentucky State University, Lexington, Ky. This is an act which has long been desired by the alumni and other friends of this institution. In this connection the fact should be emphasized that all sub-freshman work in the sense of preparatory work will be eliminated after two years. Those now matriculating in the academy will be given opportunity to finish their academic course. All sub-freshman work in the Normal Department will cease at the close of this school year. The law provides for regular collegiate work in the Department of Education, but there will be no sub-freshman studies offered in the Normal Department after this summer.

A bill was also passed changing the name of Kentucky University, at Lexington, to Transylvania—the name under which this institution in years past won great renown.

A bill creating an Educational Commission of eleven members which shall make a study of the present school law and school system of Kentucky and of other States and draft recommendations to be laid before the next General Assembly. The law provides the memberships of the Commission as follows: The Governor, ex-officio; the State Superintendent, ex-officio; the Presidents of the two State Normal schools, ex-officio; The President of the State University, ex-officio; one Representative elected by the Lower House of the General Assembly; one Senator elected by the Upper House; one member of the Federated Woman's Clubs, selected by the officials of the Federation; one representative of the colleges; one city superintendent; and one county superintendent—the three last named to be appointed by the Governor. Representative J. H. Jackson, of Owen county, was selected by the House; Senator J. W. Watkins, of Union county, by the Senate. Governor Willson has appointed Dr. F. W. Hinitt, President of Central University, at Danville; Supt. E. H. Mark, of Louisville; and Supt. L. N. Taylor, of Pulaski county.

It is rightly believed that this Educational Commission has a greater opportunity before it for shaping the educational destinies of Kentucky than any other legally authorized body ever provided for in the South.

The bill creating a County Board of Education and doing away with the present cumbersome School Trustee System many men prominent in education and in politics both have said that there is a greater possibility of improvement for the common schools in this measure than in all the others put together.

At an early date, we shall give an analysis, somewhat in detail, of the provisions of the County Board Bill which becomes a law in ninety days from the date of its signature, which took place March 24th.

Deputy U. S. Marshal Mays captured John Noe and James Stampor, moonshiners, in Powell county last week and placed them in the Richmond jail. The posse destroyed 2,000 gallons of beer, 150 gallons of singlings and a still claimed to be worth $500.

Circuit court convened at Booneville last Monday with Judge Lewis on the bench and Hon. Ira Fields as commonwealth's attorney. Up to date there have been but two sent to the penitentiary, viz.: Dan Terry and one of the Evans boys. Two small boys were sent to the House of Reform.

Arthur Yeary and a Miss Johnson were arraigned before the court for living in adultery. In order to beat the case they agreed to marry. Everybody in the court seemed anxious to be at the wedding. While Yeary was getting his license, Charles Hogg, a noted young attorney, moved the judge that the couple should come up stairs and marry before the court.

The judge sustained the motion and Jockie Smith was sent to inform them of the same. In a short time the couple entered the court room, the young woman carrying a child in her arms. Chas. Hogg, always willing to lend a hand in time of need, agreed to hold the baby while Rev. S. K. Ramey officiated. The ceremony was soon over and Rev. Ramey, in a very dignified way, introduced Mr. and Mrs. Yeary to the audience. No one seemed to extend a warmer congratulation than "Yaller Britches." Jockie Smith declared that this was the first couple he had ever waited upon.

... Matt Roberts, who lived at the mouth of lower Buffalo, died at his home Friday night and was buried Saturday. ... James Gentry, of Madison county is moving to J. C. Roses'.

Blanton Bros. have finished their log contract for F. W. Fletcher on South Quicksand and have moved back to their homes at Lambrie.

The Farmers' Institute.

The lack of interest on the part of our farmers on agricultural questions is regrettable. A number of farmers' institutes have been held here and not many farmers were present. The State has gone to considerable expense in employing practical farmers to visit the county seats and discuss the best methods for farming but the attendance has had a chilling effect. Another effort is being made to arouse interest among the farmers. On Thursday and Friday, April 16 and 17, another institute will be held in Jackson and able speakers will be present who are practical farmers, have tested the methods they will discuss and every farmer will be greatly benefited by attending the lectures. Farming, the chief industry in this county, has not been as profitable as it should, for the reason that our farmers are clinging to the ideas of our forefathers. But little improvement has been made in the method of farming in this county. The farmers, if they care to make their work more profitable, should not miss the institute. It costs you nothing.

Porter Center, who has been working at his mill near Gilmore, is with his parents this week... Miss Vesta Arnett, a student of H. G. A., is visiting her parents at Caneys this week.... South Rose, of Lee City, who has been attending school at H. G. A., is very low with fever.... The foundation of a new industrial building is now being laid at Hazel Green.... The Sunday school convention was held in Hazel Green Christian church last Saturday and Sunday in which we had some very excellent lectures from our teachers and two ministers from Jackson. The Model.

We call attention to the new ad
of The Model, of Lexington, which appears on our second page.
This is one of the few Lexington was caused by the second tide coming in Quicksand while the river was up. While some of the eye beams are bent, we do not think the bridge is seriously damaged.

The Awful Gossip.
We like to knock the gossip.
We can't admire her ways.
Too much she criticizes;
Too meager is her praise,
The failings of her neighbors
Are always on display,
But still we pause to listen,
To what she has to say.

We know Jim isn't perfect;
But then, it isn't kind
To dwell on his shortcomings
And fault with him to find.
But still of all his meanness
Perhaps we wouldn't dream
Did we but stop to listen
When she has on full steam.

But, though we may abhor it
That she's her tongue should use
In giving a bad name to us,
Still we must know the news,
And if we didn't meet her
Most everywhere we went
We'd have to buy a paper,
And that would cost a cent.

Yes, we despise the gossip.
Who dares morsels pass,
But are we very certain
We are the best in the class?
For examination
An inward look would show
When knocking was the programme
That we were none too slow.

NEW STATE LAWS

Acts of the Late Legislature Presented Here In Concise Form.

SOME OF VITAL IMPORTANCE

While Not So Many Laws Were Enacted as by Previous General Assembly, Some Acts Stand High.

Reorganization of the Kentucky School System Was One of the Measures of Large Importance.

Far-Reaching Action Was Taken Toward a Regulation of Tobacco Business in the State.

Among the Measures That Failed Were the County Option Bill and the Reapportionment Bill.

The Kentucky Legislature that adjourned on March 17th did not enact as many laws as its predecessor, but some of the laws are of vital importance. Chief among these are the following: Act abolishing the present school trustee system and establishing county boards to control the schools and teachers; act to prevent a man from selling his tobacco after he pools it; act appropriating $476,000 to complete the new Statehouse and maintain it; act appropriating $300,000 to the two Normal Schools and $200,000 to the State University; act putting poolrooms out of business; act giving state aid to all tuberculosis sanatoriums; act providing for a vote to annul the constitution so as to permit state aid to public road building; act authorizing warehousemen to commingle tobacco of like grades; act further regulating the employment of children in factories, and an act providing the tax penalty shall not go on until December 1 each year.

The bill to extend the county unit local option law to all counties in the state failed to pass, as did the bills to redistrict the senatorial and representative districts, and the bill requiring all buyers of tobacco to pay a license fee.

The governor vetoed a number of bills, the most important one being the Arnett bill exempting from taxation stock in foreign corporations owned by residents of Kentucky.

The total amount of all appropriation bills is about $1,325,000, and the session of sixty days cost about $90,000.

Governor Wilson gave out a statement reciting at considerable length his reasons for vetoing several appropriation bills passed by the legislature. The principal bill vetoed was the measure appropriating $100,000 for a state tuberculosis sanatorium. Three or four other measures added considerably to the sum appropriated by the legislature. In his statement the governor recited that when the present legislature and state officers were elected there was nearly a million and a half of dollars in the treasury. This surplus, he says, the legislature, against his wishes expressed in messages and vetoes, wiped out and then proceeded to pass the measures just vetoed after the auditor had presented to the two houses a statement showing that there was but $189 left in the treasury. The course of the majority of the legislature is sharply arraigned in the statement.

The following bills are all that passed and were signed by the Governor:

HOUSE BILLS.

101. Crecelius—Act providing a fine for the seller and the buyer of a crop of tobacco that has been pooled, unless sold by consent of the pooling organization.

103. McChord—Act providing a fine for the sale or transfer of a piece of personal property where the possession is in one person and the title thereto is vested in another. (A companion bill to No. 101.)

44. Waggoner—Act increasing the annual appropriation for the Kentucky Children's Home Society from $15,000 to $30,000.

26. Klar—Act changing the name of A. and M. College to "State University."

36. Brooks—Act providing that fines and forfeitures in police courts in fourth-class cities shall be collected by the cities, in case of appeal.

157. Lillard—Act to prevent the manufacture and sale of adulterated or misbranded foods, drugs, medicines and liquors, and appropriating $30,000 a year to have the Kentucky experiment station enforce the law and test the articles named.

140. Sullivan—Act appropriating $150,000 each for new buildings for the two state normal schools and $200,000 for the State University.

102. Sullivan—Act changing the basis of representation for free tuition to State Normal Schools for a certain number of pupils from each county.

64. Meyer—Act to promote and compel attendance of children in schools and to prevent truancy.

93. Graves—Act changing time of holding circuit court in the Second district.

105. McChord—Act empowering fire insurance companies in this state to incorporate with only $50,000 capital stock instead of $100,000.

306. Wilson—Act to amend the drainage laws as applicable to Union county.

312. Schobert—Act appropriating $100 to remove the remains of Thomas F. Marshall to the cemetery at Frankfort.

106. Porter—Act transferring town of Clay in Webster county to fifth-class towns.

387. Strange—Act providing that dental parlors or dental companies shall be operated under the name of the proprietor.

179. Buford—To enable State Board of Pharmacy to exchange certificates of registration with other states, allowing pharmacists registered in another state to practice pharmacy in Kentucky.

261. Klar—An act relating to children who are now or may hereafter become dependent, neglected or delinquent, to defuse these terms and fixing and defining the power of the several county courts within this commonwealth with reference to the care, treatment and control of such children, and to provide for the means whereby such powers may be exercised (known as Juvenile Court bill.)

262. Klar—An act defining and defining the powers of the several county courts within this commonwealth with reference to persons responsible for or directly promoting or contributing to the conditions that render a child dependent, neglected or delinquent, and providing how such powers may be exercised.

66. Rice—Act to repeal the act creating a graded school in District No. 3 in Johnson county.

76. Simmons—Act empowering fifth-class towns to issue refunding bonds to pay debts.

75. Simmons—An act providing that a majority of the voters of any fourth-class town shall decide whether or not that town shall be annexed to a second-class city. The old law was that 40 per cent could govern.

257. Beard—An act providing that circuit courts may use the poll-tax to increase the road fund in any county.

233. Perry—Act repealing the charter of the town of Homer, in Logan county.

164. H. L. Myers—Act fixing maximum fine at $100 for sale of drugs in violation of the law as to the sale of drugs.

241. P. W. Berkshire—Act to repeal that part of Section 2412a Kentucky statutes that requires land owners to keep clean the waters of navigable streams.

220. Steers—Act authorizing warehousemen to commingle tobacco of like grades.

198. Sullivan—Act providing for the continuation of the Geological, Topographical and Agricultural Survey.

143. Anderson—An act authorizing county courts to make contracts for four years for road construction and repair. The law now limits it to one year.

238. Harris—Act to regulate the child labor law and make the provisions thereof effective.

108. Porter—Act authorizing the unused money in any school district to be applied to the next term or to increasing pay of teachers.

11. Haswell—Act allowing the State Librarian a clerk at $50 per month.

32. Buford—Act defining the crime of abortion and fixing a severe penalty therefor.

141. Sullivan—Act for the government and regulation of common schools; abolishes the present trustee system and creates the county board system; does not apply to cities, towns and graded school districts.

107. Porter—Act amending the revenue law so that the penalty does not go on until December 1 each year.

188. Shanks—Act changing time of holding circuit court in the Thirteenth district.

21. Klar—Act to provide for the care and custody of courthouses in counties containing second-class cities; applies especially to Lexington.

44. Rules Committee—Act giving chief clerks of Senate and House 30 days' pay to prepare permanent copy of journals of each house.

210. Nichols—Act giving defendant in felony cases ten peremptory challenges and commonwealth three.

136. Walla—Act allowing pensions to members of Veteran Volunteer Firemen's Association, of Louisville.

204. Porter—Act authorizing sheriffs to pay election officers as soon as work is completed.

185. E. Meyer—Act requiring city of Louisville to levy a 3-cent tax for school purposes instead of 33-cent tax.

120. Hunter—Act to define and make clear the statute (Sec. 1308) relating to drawing weapons and shooting on public highways.

207. Wilson—Act authorizing justices of the peace to hold court twice a month.

SENATE BILLS.

33. Bosworth—An act giving to authorized corporations the right to construct dams across navigable streams and allowing them to exercise the right of eminent domain. The bill is so drawn that it applies only to Cumberland Falls, where a power plant is to be erected.

83. Combs—An act to accept the provisions of an act of congress allowing increased appropriations for the Agricultural Experiment Station.

103. Nell—An act to provide for an annual school for city and county health officers, at which shall be taught the handling of contagious diseases.

86. Combs—An act changing the name of Kentucky University to Transylvania University.

Worry kills more people than work—but it is a blamed sight easier way to die.

160. Cureton—An act allowing the commonwealth's attorney in Louisville two district detectives.

21. Hogan—An act abolishing registration of voters in cities of the fifth and sixth class.

122. Watson—An act to create an educational commission to investigate the needs of the schools of the state and try to devise some plan by which the conditions can be improved.

41. Wilhelmi—An act to prevent operation of poolrooms where betting on horse-races is carried on; provides $1,000 to $5,000 fine; also prohibits "hand-books" for betting on races, but excepts regularly organized racetracks from the provisions of the bill.

20. Walker—An act to authorize the iron-jawed Man I see once at a dinner show up to Boston couldn't have got away with it. Tough! Why, the pesky idiot never pounded it a bit! How do you expect to get tender steaks if you don't pound it? Haw! Haw!

When he got through laughing he went on to say that him and Huldy had decided to go to her sister's at Osterville for a visit.

"We've been intending to go for a good while," he says. "And now we can do it without its costing much.

Pay for the house goes on whether we're there or not, and the railroad fare'll be more than made up by the saving in our own grub. I'm a peaceable feller, anyhow," says he, "and there's no peace while Huldy and that British was together."

"Case of too many cooks spoiling the soup," he says.

"Soup!" he says. "Well, you wait a little spell. If they ain't chasing around after a new cook inside of a week I'm a Jonah, that's all."

He was right. Couple of days later

I heard from Eunice T. that the Twins had hired Hannah Jane Purvis to do the cooking for 'em. Hannah Jane's late lamented had been cook on a boat boat when he was young, so I suppose she called she'd inherited the knack. But I had my doubts.

I was getting real chunky with the Heavens by this time, so one afternoon I walked up to the Scudder place to see 'em. They were sprawled out on the piazza chairs with their feet on the railing and they hailed me as friendly as if I was rich as they was, but excepts being poorer than Job's turkey.

I noticed Lord James tiptoeing around in the parlor, so I naturally mentioned him.

"Your valet man, here," I says: "he wasn't quite to the skipper's taste as cook, key?"

They both laughed, Van Brunt with his big good-natured "Ha, ha!" and Hartley with that quiet chuckle of his.

"James," said Van, "is a glittering success in the wardrobe, but he dislikes to hide his talents under a kitchen bushel."

"James," said Hartley, "appears to apply the same methods to trousers and steak."

I made some sort of answer; don't matter what. She went ahead lamenting over what a come-down 'twas for her to work out. You'd think she'd been used to marble halls to bear her. She settles the dishpan between her knees and starts in shelling peas, talking blue streak all the time. She was a whole sewing circle in herself, that woman.

"Huldy was such a quiet man," she says, after a spell. "He scarce talked." (Didn't have a chance, thinks I to myself.) "When he died—did I ever tell you how Cap'n Samuels—my first husband as was—came to die, Mr. Hartley?" says she.

"He was quiet for a few minutes. Out back we could hear Hannah Jane laying into the neighbor's boy because he tracked mud on the kitchen floor.

"It was no use," says Van, decided.

"I refuse to renew my subscription to The Daily Morgan. All those in favor of paring with the Widow Purvis at once, immediate, P. D. Q., will say 'Aye'." Contrary minded, "No." It's a vote. Hannah was erased. What shall we do, Martin—go back to James and dignity, or feed ourselves?"

Hartley had took up the Natural

Life book and was trying to read it.

Now he looked up and says, mournful as ever: "No, Mrs. Purvis, I bename of talking the hinges off a barn door."

"Lord!" says Van. "Let's change the subject. By the way, Martin; it's odd that Agnes hasn't written."

Hartley was setting out towards the front of the porch where the sun could get at him. Now he shifted back into the shadow of the vines.

"Is it time for a letter to reach here?" he asked.

"Why, yes
